JAMES PHILLIPS IS HELD IN JAIL ON RAPE CHARGE

Warrant Says Youth Carnally Assaulted Miss Edith Myers

COUPLE HAD GONE FOR EVENING DRIVE

James C. Phillips, 20, Detroit, Mich., a former resident of the Crossland community near Hazel, was placed in the county jail Wednesday, July 7, on a charge of raping and carnally assaulting the body of Miss Edith Myers, 24, daughter of Galen Myers, of Hazel, route 1.

The alleged assault took place Tuesday night in the Hayes Hotel, just off a well travelled road below Tobacco, according to the girl's father, who swore to the warrant.

Myers said he would press charges against Phillips to the last notch.

The prisoner himself, a clean-cut, handsome young chap said that he had nothing to say except that "the charges are false."

According to the father of the girl, Phillips carried Miss Myers to an ice cream supper at Lynn Grove Saturday night, and then obtained a date to go driving Tuesday night. The boy had a new Ford V-8 sedan. They left home, Myers said, about 8 o'clock, and returned about 11. He said his daughter told him she promised the boy she would say nothing of the assault to her parent. She claimed, he said, that she was afraid Phillips would continue to choke her if she refused. Before this time, Myers admitted, Phillips had "always been nice to Edith."

They had gone together some time before the young man left for Detroit, Mich., three years ago, and on his infrequent visit home they had kept company.

The crime as sworn by the warrant, is one which does not permit bail. Examining trial has not been set, although Phillips declared as soon as he talks with his father, who will, he said, come down from Hazel, he will employ counsel and go through examining trial.

Young Phillips came home from Detroit last Friday, intending to spend about two weeks with friends and relatives in Calloway. His mother's home is on a Hazel rural route.

According to a statement gained from him at the county jail, he was in bed asleep at his home when Sheriff Art Kingins said an indictment could not be placed against the youth until after the examining trial. The circuit court also would have to fix charges before the case could be brought up in regular court which convenes in August.

Miss Myers Wednesday afternoon late was still in the Mason Hospital, where she was taken for diagnosis and treatment about 1 o'clock Wednesday. Hospital attendances refused to make a statement concerning her condition.

The board, composed of P. A. Hart, republican; W. H. Finney, democrat; and C. H. Redden, republican, was appointed by the city council to care for the duty. It bases its judgment of tax evaluation on previous assessments of same or similar property, and couple such knowledge with personal consideration.

Lomon Thompson Plows Up an Old Iron Pot

Lomon Thompson, well known young farmer of the Knight vicinity, plowed up an iron pot about three weeks ago which has aroused a great deal of speculation as to what it was used for, how old it is and who originally had it.

Mr. Thompson was breaking ground for corn when his plow point nearly turned up the long buried utensil. It evidently had been buried for a long number of years.

The pot is very heavy and somewhat resembled a flower pot except that it has no draining hole in the bottom, which is a flat circular disk to prevent overturning. Except for this disk, the pot very much resembles a bell.

The consensus of opinion is that the pot was used by some of the earliest pioneers for grinding corn into meal.

REPORTS GOOD ON COLDWATER ROAD RIGHT-O-WAY LIEN

Senator Turner Says He May Have All Property Claims Cleared Soon

ENGINEER GAITHER LOOKS AT LOCATION

State Road Location Engineer Gaither, Paducah, accompanied Senator T. O. Turner over the proposed Coldwater Road right-o-way Wednesday morning in an effort to aid solution of the problem of right-o-way clearance.

It was surmised by reliable authorities on the road question that if he found it possible, Gaither might recommend changes in the route of the road's center line and thus avoid conflicting and adamant property owners who have consistently refused to sign right-o-way claims.

According to Senator T. O. Turner, chief authority on the $273,000 project, but time of the right-o-way hold-outs had signed by Wednesday afternoon, and he expressed his belief that he would gain the signatures of others by Friday at the latest.

Attorney Hall Hood said that court action for right-o-way privileges could be taken any time, and insisted that if property owners would not sign any other way there was little alternative but to resort to such measures.

After all property claims are disposed with, the contracts can be advertised immediately, such advertising to last 30 days, time in which time contracts will be let immediately, provisional, of course, with state option.

The state, Hood said, will take care of the employing of laborers, and the road project will last as long as the state requires much help, as the contract provides for.

Actual construction it is believed, may begin late in August.

He said, too, that many of his friends had already expressed themselves in favor of another candidate before anticipating his own entrance into the race. He expressed it as his sincere purpose to enter the race early four years from now and be "the county clerk in 1941."

CANNING PROJECT IS HUGE SUCCESS

Seventy Homemakers Watch Miss Shevemaker's Homework Demonstrations

Seventy homemakers attended the canning demonstration conducted by Miss Frances Shevemaker Friday afternoon in the Women's Club Room in the basement of the Peoples Savings Bank. The demonstration included the canning of black berries, green beans, and soured mixtures.

According to those viewing the demonstration, the occasion was an opportunity that has come to the homemakers of the county for the first time in a number of years. Permanent work of this sort, invaluable in nature, could be continued in Calloway county, observers declared, if this county had a home demonstration agent. Her duties, it was said, would include such work.

County Agent J. T. Cochran expressed the view that "the farm families of the county could have green vegetables to take the place of dried ones during the winter if the canning were done during the summer months and stored for the winter."

Many visitors who saw the demonstration of Miss Shevemaker were enthusiastic in their praise of the project.

MURRAY BOARD OF TRADE ORGANIZED IN MASS MEETING

To Favor Shannon as Dam Site in Lower Tennessee Valley

T. O. TURNER HEADS GROUP OF WORKERS

In a mass meeting at the court house Tuesday night, July 8, the Murray Board of Trade was organized. The purpose of this organization is to send delegates to Washington and request places where there is deemed to ask for the location of the Gilbertsville dam site at Shannon.

In the meeting Senator T. O. Turner discussed the proposed sites as TVA engineers have investigated at Gilbertsville and Star Line Works, near Birmingham, as well as the possibilities of the site at Shannon. He stated he considered the Shannon site a much better location for the dam, saving the valuable tillable lands of Calloway that would be covered if the dam was built below the first proposed Aurora location. As to the decision of the engineers as to this location it is undecided, although investigation is being carried on along the entire lower Tennessee.

Besides the discussion of Senator Turner, other Murray citizens discussed their opinion of the matter. Following the discussion Senator Turner presided in the formation of the Murray Board of Trade and the election of the officers and advisory board. These officers and board will meet to further their work in the matter.

Senator Turner was unanimously chosen the chairman of the organization and T. O. Baucum elected to the office of secretary-treasurer. Members of the advisory board named were: T. H. Stokes, H. T. Walcott, T. R. Jones, L. D. Outland, O. J. Jennings, Joe T. Lovett, and George Hart.

Lee Clark States His Platform in Candidacy for Representative

TO THE PEOPLE OF CALLOWAY COUNTY:

If elected, I pledge my support to the following measures that are of vital importance to the people. To carry on the program of reducing the state debt as fast as possible until it is wiped out; and prohibiting the issuing of state warrants above the constitutional provision of $500,000. This practice plunged the state which started 25 years ago. Each time I represented you I advocated a pay as you go policy of state finance. I heartily endorse Governor Chandler and the legislature in putting over the reorganization of state government which began to reduce state debt and stopped the issuing of interest-bearing warrants.

Each session I have attended I have advocated a greater support for our schools, and I am glad to see a greater per capita than has ever been before. I have supported the College in every way possible and have been forced to go along in some measure. I was not wholly in accord with the support for education.

I hold no salaried position as some may think. I have been working at the College book store, having my own money invested as other merchants have in their stores. I give a certain commission of sales to the College for the use of the building or space occupied for the business. For the fiscal year just passed I turned into the treasury $1,408.02 for the state, which was good profit the state received from my labor, and more than was made in any previous year under the plan of hiring sales manager for the state.

I have worked along in harmony with Senator T. O. Turner in support of the College and other legislation for roads and reduction of real estate taxes and fighting extravagance in state government.

I am for further extension of the old-age assistance until all deserving persons are helped, both men and women; and also favor the revision of the law so that it will NOT BE NECESSARY TO DISPOSE OF OR TURN OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT THE OLD HOME BEFORE ONE MAY RECEIVE ASSISTANCE or a pension as some may call it. I am willing to follow the administration to increase the amount of help to these old people when it can be done with proper regard for those who have to pay the taxes that will make this possible. I am for freeing the bridges when it is possible without taking the money out of your own road district, which would stop the road building if the cost of freeing would come out of your own road district.

I am for giving the department of highways the right to condemn and pay for such rights of way for improvements of highway systems in any county in the state. I also favor strict policing of the highways to curb reckless driving and to protect life and property.

It will be necessary to get legislation through the next legislature for the protection of those in the Tennessee River Valley whose lands the dam will flood; and to see that these land owners are paid for their property and that the county will be reimbursed for the loss of revenue from the taxes on property that will be covered by the overflow.

Being a farmer, I'm naturally in sympathy with the agricultural problems. I, together with about 1800 land owners of our county are cooperating with our great President in working out a program for the betterment of the farmers of our county. It will be necessary for the state to cooperate with the government. If you elect me, I will use my best efforts to see that the farmers of our county continue to receive the benefits from our government that are justly theirs.

Some of the opposition has been whispering around that I was put out by Rainey T. Wells. This is as untrue as some other things that are being circulated. Mr. Wells never mentioned the matter to me before I had decided to run; and so far as he is concerned, if he and his many friends are for me I greatly appreciate it, as they are numerous in the county and are a very honorable and upright people, having always been a great force for the progress of our county. As one that knows, may I say that he was the greatest force for the location and maintenance of our own College. I do not pose as a guardian for the College but feel that it is the greatest asset of our county, and whoever goes to the legislature goes there with the burden of fighting all enemies of the Murray State Teachers College.

I shall try to see as many of the voters as possible, but must remember that the office does not pay enough to presume to spend more than it pays to get elected. Many people have gone to the legislature having ambitions it seemed to gain back what they spent in their campaign, and to get any other personal favor they might by the use of their votes. I never had to be hired to vote for measures that I thought to be pertaining to the best interests of Calloway county.

In conclusion, let me say I am for a united party—7,000 Democrats of Calloway county, a militant working party, with the right of suffrage in a primary to nominate whomever they choose and support the nominees. "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." If you endorse my way of doing things at Frankfort vote for me, and I will be under renewed obligation to do my best for old Calloway.

Yours to serve,
LEE CLARK

Wheat threshing is finished in this community. Every one seemed to make more bushels than he had estimated, and the grain is plump and full. O. W. Folwell, made a conservative estimate of his patch at 40 bushels; he made 66½. The largest community threshing dinner was set at the homes of Mrs. C. O. Brandon and Mrs. Clarence Dyer, where on Thursday and Friday between 75 and 100 persons were served.

Corn are growing rapidly under the assiduous cultivation and the ice showers they are receiving. Between threshing and plowing, farmers are beginning to make hay.

There is a jinx in this community. W. C. Raggsdale, while giggling with a neighbor's boys last Friday evening, painfully lacerated his right foot on a harrow, the wound necessitating surgical treatment. Then Saturday afternoon while hauling out hay, Roy Drenon very painfully stove in his left heel, breaking several bones and spraining tendons and tendons.

After weeks of bandages and false shoes, both Charles McClure and "Al" donned shoes for the first time Sunday. Both limp considerably yet. The tragedy for the lad is that his boyish barefoot days are over, for the injured great toe uncontrollably drops, and unsupported, would cause him to stumble.

Farm women are very busy canning blackberries, plums, summer pears, peaches, and apples, cucumbers and beans. The making of jelly, jam, and preserves is the order of the day. Bed ticks are being washed and filled with bright new straw.

Miss Ernestine Colson, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. Reba Folwell for two weeks, returned to her home near Newburg Sunday. Mrs. Louise Hontz, Mr. Hontz, and Baby Betty Anne of Paducah brought her mother, Mrs. Pearl Erwin of Murray and the Misses Edna Pearl and Birdie Mae Erwin to make a Sunday afternoon call upon Mrs. Hontz's grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Skinner at the V. B. Folwell home. Other afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Asad Folwell and Baby Mary Ruth. "Al" again took Sunday lunch with Aunt and Cousin.

Sunday evening Wilson Gantt, Mrs. Ellen Skinner, Misses Pearl Evans and Audie Folwell, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Folwell, and Mary Ruth made and ate two freezers of ice cream at the Folwell home.

Golden Raggsdale and family were Sunday afternoon callers on Raymond Phelps and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walston and Jeanette spent the week end in his mother's home at Almo. His sister, Miss Lucile, has a painfully sprained foot.

Miss Irene Brandon is spending last week and this in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Embry, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Cohron, and Mrs. Virgie Williams, Henderson, Ky.

Geo. S. Hale made a flying trip home from Detroit during the holiday week end. He came on business to consult his uncle, Dr. L. D. Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford McClure, Charles, Sarah Ruth, and Ulanda Gray, and Mrs. Stella Raggsdale left Sunday evening for a week's visit with relatives in Detroit. Mrs. Rovine—Walker and Baby James Hughes returned to her home with her aunt, Mrs. McClure, after a few weeks with her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Holland are rejoicing over the news of the arrival of a new granddaughter, the first child of their youngest child, Mrs. Frances Futrell, and Mr. Futrell in a St. Louis hospital Friday of last week. The mother and babe are reported as doing well.

Mrs. Hunt Lovett has been very sick and is still bedridden, though she is somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phelps and Thomas were Sunday callers upon Mrs. Ginia Lovett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Walker and baby of Granite City, Ill., were visitors among relatives of this community last week.

Clarence Dyer and family, had Saturday as out-of-the-state visitors a brother and family. The local family went with their guests Sunday to visit other relatives in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Folwell visited her brother, Gilbert Colson, and family Sunday afternoon. She loves to have these former students come to see her, and she deliberately sets a bait of new books and magazines they might not find elsewhere nor own. Those estimable young ladies will know that for a joke, because they know that "Al" loves to share her books with anyone who enjoys them.

A large crowd, considering vacationists, sickness, and local conflicts, attended the regular worship at Friendship. Good lessons were conducted by the regular teachers, in the absence of all the elders. A good little song leader was discovered in Joe Taz Raggsdale.

The annual protracted meeting will begin, it is planned, on the Fourth Sunday of this month.

The Rev. J. H. Thurman met his regular appointment at Sugar Tree Sunday, where they had an enjoyable service and a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barnett entertained eight little guests Wednesday, June 30, in honor of their daughter's thirteenth birthday. The guests were: the honoree, Miss Mildred Barnett, Misses Larue and Nelle Colson, Sue and Marie Ellis, Faley and Murcen McClure, the latter of New Concord, and Jane Hopkins. When the little "Misses" arrived at 9:00 o'clock, they donned coveralls and slid down the new straw stack. At the noon hour they were served a delicious birthday dinner with a cake and all the trimmings. After some quiet games and conversation, each couple tried making their favorite candy in a Dutch candy treat. According to the guests, the mixture of old-fashioned sports with the "newer birthday party ideas" made a particularly entertaining combination.—Alf.

Murray Square

By JULIAN III

It's easy to find news in Murray, because the people like to be told. But there was one fellow who must have been an out-of-towner, because when I asked him "what's the news?" he scratched his ear and said things were so dead where he came from that a man who died in the Post-Office wasn't found for eight days. The boy by him said his daddy was bragging. They didn't even have a Post-office in that place, and people there had to walk four miles to get their mail on a rural route.

Then there is the story of the unprogressive small-town editor who upon being asked to print some bills responded with a "How much'll you give?" and never so much as unproprio his pedal appendages (some people call 'em feet) from the closed top of his typewriter desk. Needless to say, that town was not Murray. The people of Murray, from what I can find out about the place, have to figure out which side their bread is buttered on, so they keep it buttered on both sides.

Just walk around Murray Square, if you please! You'll see more business here than in any other town of its size this side of the outer extremity of Einstein's circle. Honestly, there's so much traffic in Murray that a person'd think that every day is a special occasion, like a big singing or mule day or picnic or something. On Saturdays you'll see the side of the National Guards if you were in a hurry to get through the streets, and even on Mondays when you go into the stores you think maybe they're having a sale of some kind from the amount of people you see shopping. You see this side of the clothing stores, and notion shops, delightful confectionaries, and places where they sell jewelry, and drug stores, and beauty shops (that may be one reason why we have such good looking women in Murray. Maybe there ought to be a few shops for men scattered around—two high class banks, and everything.

Did you know the Capitol Theatre is the only theatre of its size in the world that has the special cooling system that your home show place has? Well, it's the truth. And on top of that it gives you the same high class pictures that the deluxe metropolitan theatres present—and sometimes they get here before they do at the bigger places too. And at much lower prices.

Five big well-attended churches in Murray! Think of it! Four major active, wide-awake, civic organizations. A hosiery mill here that is a result of the consolidation of the Paducah-Benton-Murray plants and one which employs up to 350 workers. Headquarters for the Western Kentucky Dark Fired Tobacco Association. One of the youngest and most progressive colleges in the South. And the homeplace of the inventor of radio.

With church attendance, energetic civic groups, industrial plants, ambitious young people of ability, courage, and industry, and a sterling college what may not this town become? Why, I wouldn't be at all surprised to see Murray become headquarters for the Gilbertsville Dam! Would you?

Square Strolling: Chief of Police Parker said his job called for more duty on the Fourth than any other time. Wouldn't interfere with a little patriotic celebration, would you, Chief? Overheard on the Street: "Noah, child—Ah! take mah Fo'th when ah ain't got no work to do!" George Farmer, we hear, caught just about as many fish as he could wag home a few days before the Fourth. He sho' can handle that rod and reel! If J. Mack Jenkins is as good a fisherman as he is a roach catcher, we'd hate even to be a minnow in a lake that he's around. From what we pick up on the Square, he caught 250 roaches in one trap Friday night, and used 'em all for bait Monday at Reelfoot. How were the brim-biting, Mack!

The Crime Of It

He was in his teens—a mere youth and health and glow of tender years had not faded from his cheek. Nor had bright, flashing eye of youth been dulled by care or worry. But these things cannot be so if he continues to guzzle the stuff that made him stagger the streets of Glasgow that beautiful Sunday afternoon—so drunk he couldn't tell his father from a policeman. The crime of it, the unspeakable pity of the crime. To us it was horror that gripped and chilled to the marrow. But, mayhap, the fault lies in the boy's home.—Glasgow Times.

Intramural Water Sports Held In New Carr Unit

"If the class does not get too large, there is a probability of having mixed intramural swimming the last 5 weeks of the summer session," stated Coach Roy Stewart.

Erecting a Monument Is a Solemn Obligation!

No one likes to think of a loved one lying in an unmarked grave. Yet many of us have neglected that solemn obligation to our beloved ones passed on because we have thought it was too expensive or too difficult to select the appropriate memorial at the right price.

Here at the Murray Marble Works we have always tried to appreciate the perplexity of those who want to select an appropriate memorial and suitable marking place for the last resting place of their beloved dead.

Our business is predicated on the grounds that the greatest asset we have is the pleasure of our customers in feeling that not only is the grave fittingly marked forever with a beautiful stone but also that they have been given the utmost in value.

We not only invite you to consult with us but we urge you to ask questions freely and frankly. We are always glad to give you the benefit of our years of experience in building and erecting memorials.

Tough Game With Texas Team Listed for Opener

Hardin-Simmons Is Rated as Strongest Opponent

Coach Roy Stewart picked a tough team for the opening game next fall instead of an easy opener as is customary for most schools. The first game is with Hardin-Simmons College in Abilene, Tex. Mr. Cutchin stated "They are as good as or better than Vandy".

The schedule follows:

Sept. 24 Hardin-Simmons, Abilene, Texas

Oct. 2 Tenn. Poly, Murray; 2 p.m.

Oct. 8 Ouachita College, Arkadelphia, Ark.

Oct. 15 Middle Tenn. Teachers, Murray, 8 p.m.

Oct. 23 Mississippi College, Murray, 2 p.m. (Homecoming)

Oct. 29 Union University, Dyersburg, Tenn., 8 p.m.

Nov. 5 West Tenn., Murray, 2 p.m.

Nov. 12 Morehead, Murray, 2 p.m.

Nov. 20 Western, Bowling Green, 2 p.m.

Nov. 26 Superior Wisconsin State, College, Murray, 2 p.m.

The Tennessee Poly game will be on High School Day. All high school students are invited to attend this game and will be admitted free provided they are identified by their principal or by some other official from the school which they attend.

The Ouachita game will be a hard one. Murray beat them last year by the score of 21-0. The same year Ouachita won 33-13 over Mississippi College who beat Murray 20-14. They also beat Illinois Wesleyan who were the champions of the Little Nineteen Conference.

Copch Stewart signed a two year agreement with Superior State and Murray meets them on their own field on September 18, 1938. Although Murray has met Mississippi College only once, the Choctaws have asked to come back because of the good treatment they received while they were here.

Stewart will not have as heavy men this year as he has had for the past two seasons. Instead of making consistent short gains, Coach Stewart expects to make long running gains at the risk of losing yardage frequently.

Because of the early date of the Hardin-Simmons game, fall practice will start on September 1.

Exports of raw cotton from the United States in May were valued at $23,942,000 compared with $27,672,000 in April and $22,248,000 in May 1936.

Throughout Brazil generally flour consumed is milled on fine, but due to lower transportation costs the northern portion Brazil purchases wheat flour from the United States and Canada.

Mrs. A. M. Crider, Ballard, has sold enough turnip seed and garden seeds to buy a pressure cooker.

I'm sure every one was glad to see the good rain which fell Saturday night, although it may be the cause of us all having a lot of work to do as the tobacco and corn will grow so fast. I guess we have to have a little bad to go with the good.

Sorry to report little James Mac Smotherman is on the sick list and also his uncle, Wren Smotherman, is on the sick list. We're hoping each of them a speedy recovery.

I suppose it is needless to say there was a large crowd and good entertainment at Backusburg Saturday. I think every one who reads the Ledger & Times was present. I really had a good time. Didn't you? I know "Uncle Bowden" Swain enjoyed the occasion for he had a chair leaning back against a tree and was grinning from one ear to the other.

Arthur Lassiter's sister, Mamie, and her family were Sunday visitors in the Lassiter home. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smotherman and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Lassiter and baby were also visitors in the home.

Commodore Jones' fine mule has been sick for several days and at the most inconvenient season of the year.

Commodore Jones is getting along fine now after having undergone a serious operation in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paschall and children, Virginia and Joe were Sunday afternoon visitors with Bonnie Byars and family. Mr. and Mrs. Paschall are expecting their eldest daughter, Larue, to return home on a visit soon. Mr. and Mrs. Paschall are going to be real proud to see Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith come home and bring the little granddaughter, Rachel Jean, from Florida.

The Oak Grove revival meeting will open Sunday, July 11. We hope every one will attend, and that a fine meeting will be held. I imagine a lot of the little children are rejoicing at the thought of school being near at hand and especially those who attend Paschall and Kelly for they know they are going to have two of the kindest teachers they could find any where. Mrs. Lenon Hall at Paschall, and Mrs. O. T. Paschall at Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Holton Jones and children, Annie Jean and Bobby, are enjoying the trip made in a new car which Mr. Jones recently purchased.

Mrs. Lona Nance of near Jones' Mill had her tonsils removed at the Clinic, Friday of last week.

West Kentucky Bible School Meet Is Held

A mass meeting of the friends of the West Kentucky Bible School was held in the Memorial Baptist Church, Murray, Ky., July 6, to consider the future work of the school. The school has been closed since last January due to the illness of the president and the flood. Due to failing health of President R. O. Beaman he offered his resignation, as head of the school, with deep regret that this step was necessary, and sincere appreciation of the work done by Bro. Beaman for the past five years, this resignation was accepted.

A new president of the school was not elected at this meeting, but a meeting was called for Tuesday, July 20, at 2 p. m. at which time this and other important matters will be attended to. All the friends of the school are asked to take notice of this meeting and are urged to come and take part in the deciding of these important matters. This is an important meeting and will be epoch making in the affairs of the school. The meeting will be held in the Memorial Baptist Church.

A committee was appointed to look after the property of the school and return it to Murray. The school has been in Paducah, in the Sunday School department of the West End Baptist Church since last September. Murray was home of the school for 15 years. This is the only school in West Kentucky for teaching the Bible to Baptist preachers and Christian workers.

Pastors W. W. Dickerson, Murray, and John R. Flynn, Edinville, were appointed as a committee to look out for a suitable man for president of the school, and any suggestion by any friends may be passed on to the committee.

FIRST BLOOM FOR PLANT

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Gus Lamb of South Twelfth street, found on a flower plant, which she owned, a beautiful bud opening in the shape of a bell.

This flower is called the "Star of Bethlehem". The blossom was in full bloom by 11:30 o'clock. The flower was snow white in the center there appeared to be the figure of the Christ child within it. Near the front of the blossom was a part that resembled the star.

Several persons from town came to see it as it blooms only once each year.

The plant stayed in full bloom for half an hour then closed to never open again, until another bud appears in about a year.

Stella Gossip

Three-Fourths of July this year 1937. Of course I attended the Backusburg Homecoming celebration. Then Sunday was "sure-nuff" 4th. Me and Esther, Clide Adams and Karon, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nanny of Backusburg were there. Mr. and Mrs. Benny Richardson and Thomas Joel Smith of near Sedalian on Bacon Creek. I "et" a tremendous good dinner. Now the 6th (no rural mail).

Ladies and gentlemen whether you know it or not "Ole Eagle" is exhausted spiritually and physically and mentally and Lee Scholes is worse off than I am!

At Backusburg I saw Mrs. Gray Radford Wise and her son, Junior, whom I had not seen in a con's age. They are from Crutchfield, Ky. I saw Dr. and Mrs. Wilber Hasgrove of Hickory, Cal Cloys of Fulton, Simon Hazell of Mayfield, and 7,000 whom I did not know.

Charley Turner has a snow white vest 13 years old. It is home-spun with homemade buttons and all. It was his grandfather's wedding garment.

Well, my grand-daddy came from Ireland and said "Faith and bejabbers".

Multiplied thousands of autos on the highways during the glorious 4th that crushed to death hundreds of women's chickens. The were crushed—bone and all and ground into sausage without salt or pepper. Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come. I had a refreshing shower of rain Sunday morning which cooled the atmosphere from the burning skys of the sultry month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Bee Cochran and James, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cochran and "Ole Man Eagle" made a pleasure motor trip to Paducah. We saw the swimming pool (100x200 feet) solid concrete; Billy Kelly, 4 feet tall and 10 years old, weight 125 lbs., and Timmy H. Tade, 6, 1-2 feet tall, (a policeman) with big automatic pistol hung to his belt—was one sight to me down at Bob Noble Park where the flood waters registered seven feet deep in 1937.

We saw steamboat Washington which was 260 feet long. Four stories high, counting the "basement" down on the famous Ohio river. We all took dinner at the Page "Cafe". I ate fish dinner, but what I needed most was brains—"Eagle".

HAZEL NEWS

Fire Destroys Barn
Fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn for W. E. Dick on his lot in east Hazel Friday night of last week. Timely discovery of the flames enabled volunteer workers to keep the blaze under control and thus save his home and other buildings.

Several barrels of corn were destroyed by the flames. The entire loss was estimated at about $400.00 with no insurance.

Guests Are Honored
A happy event in Hazel's social circles was an outdoor party given by the ladies of the community in honor of Mrs. Cecil Lamb and her mother, Mrs. Fannie Chrisman, of Frankfort, Ky.

After a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed supper was spread, and the many dainties were highly enjoyed. A few "films" showed up at supper time and helped to care for the "eats".

Mrs. Lamb is a trusted employee of the state Capitol. She was reared in Hazel and is a graduate of our high school. She is a daughter and Mrs. Chrisman is the widow of the late N. L. Chrisman, who was prominent in business and political affairs of the county some years ago.

call with a lovely garden party Tuesday evening, June 29, at the home of Mrs. Clanton.

METHODIST CHURCH
Sunday, July 11, 1937

Rev. S. C. Evans, conference evangelist of the Memphis Conference, who makes his home in Murray and whose family are members of our church, will preach for us next Sunday morning at 10:30.

At the evening hour, at 7:45, the pastor will preach on "What is Truth?" This is an important question and this discussion might help some inquiring mind.

Some people hide behind the summer weather as an excuse for not doing their religious duty, but that is a slender excuse. It is no warmer at the house of worship than in most of our homes.

You can make a substantial contribution to the welfare of your family and even to the community by regular attendance at the house of God. Come and worship with us if you have no church home in Murray.

J. Mack Jenkins, Pastor

The fourth, being near Mr. Charlton's birthday has been for the past several year an occasion for a family reunion with this fine family.

The heavy rain Saturday night made some dirt roads impassible last Sunday necessitating hand and horse power to get some stalled cars out of the mud. For years a section of the road between the late Jeff Cooper farm and the Hester Hugh Brown place has tried the patience of travelers. Last Sunday the road was obstructed with a stalled car which was finally removed. The drivers of two other cars were forced to back up and drive by the way of Hazel, going out of the way about six or eight miles, to get to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hayes entertained Monday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Attila Ellis and daughter Jacqueline of Providence, Ky. They returned home Monday night accompanied by Dr. Ellis' mother, Mrs. Alice Ellis, who will spend a few weeks with them.

PINE BLUFF NINE WINS TWIN BILL

Eldridge Men Take Morning Game Over Hazel by 5-2 Count and Shut Out Linville, 2-0

Fourth of July pleasure-seekers at Pine Bluff were spectators at two well-played ball games that saw the East Siders win the morning game with a 5-2 decision over Hazel and come back strong in the afternoon affair to shut out the well-balanced club from Linville by a low score of 2-0. The afternoon tilt, according to spectators, was Pine Bluff's "top" game of the season.

For the morning game, Hazel took an early lead when Overcast hit a circuit blow with Taylor on the "pay-off stretch". Willoughby, tossing for Pine Bluff, settled down to his customary effective pitching and stayed clear of trouble after the third frame.

Pine Bluff bunched hits to score three runs in the fourth and in the seventh made Patterson retire from pitching duties as they touched him up for four safe bingles and two run across the platter. Dunn took the mound for Hazel at this stage of the game and pitched flawlessly for the remainder of the tilt.

Batteries: Pine Bluff, Willoughby and Melton; Hazel, Patterson, Dunn and Wilson. Pine Bluff gathered 8 hits off Patterson who struck out four and walked two men. Hazel nipped Willoughby for seven scattered blows who whiffed 4 men.

CITY COUNCIL HAS REGULAR MEETING

Takes Action on Routine Cases and Endorses Telephone Proposal

Nominal consideration of routine cases was the principal action of the City Council of Murray in the first of its regular July meetings Friday night in the City Hall.

Chief among the actions taken by the council was the endorsement of a resolution for a flash type telephone communication in Murray rather than the present box system after Attorney Nat Ryan Hughes and representatives of the Southern Bell Telephone Company had appeared before the council requesting such consideration.

Mayor Foreman Graham appointed a street committee with power to act upon the request of J. D. Sexton, Murray property owner, that the city join with him in repairing the sidewalk and street in front of his property.

A board of equalizers or tax supervisors as elected by the council for the year 1937 is composed of Dr. P. A. Hart, C. H. Redden, and W. H. Finney. Alternate electors are T. W. Fain and H. V. Kennedy.

The Mayor asked the sewage committee to make recommendations on the routine claim on the city submitted by M. T. Morris, land owner.

Councilmen present at the meeting were Mayor Foreman Graham, H. E. Elliott, R. P. Holland, Robert S. Jones, L. D. Outland, J. T. Wallis, and City Clerk Charles Grogh.

Soils Need Phosphates to Maintain Balance

Phosphorus, according to Dr. Charles E. Kellogg, of the United States Department of Agriculture, is the important plant food most commonly deficient in the soils of the country, because farmers are taking out about three times as much phosphate as they are putting in.

To restore phosphorus to the agricultural soils, farmers rely on processed rock phosphate. Dr. Kellogg reports that American farmers are now applying as fertilizer less than 1,750,000 tons of rock phosphates a year. He estimates that to balance the annual loss of phosphorus would require the spreading of not less than 5,000,000 tons a year. The United States also exports about 1,000,000 tons a year.

In nature, phosphates in the soil tend to remain in balance because the remains of plants and animals return to the soil. Cultivated crops, on the average, considerable more phosphorus than natural growth. Under cultivation the phosphate reserve tends to move toward the cities in the form of foods and materials and thus are lost to the croplands. Erosion, also, causes a heavy drain on phosphates, since those forms most available to plants are found especially in the surface layer.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lord's Day: Bible Study at 9:45, preaching at 10:30 and at 7:45. Wednesday: Prayer Meeting at 7:45 o'clock.

The Gospel is God's power to save. Jesus commands men to hear, believe, and obey the Gospel. Preaching is for the purpose of teaching men how to live soberly, righteously, and godly.

The subject at the morning worship will be, "The Divine Drawing". Jesus said, "No man can come to me, except the Father that sent me draw him". It shall be our purpose to find out how God draws men.

16 Out of State Cars Are in City At Once on Friday

At exactly 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon there were 16 out-of-state cars parked in Murray or driving through the streets of the city proper.

License tags attributed car ownerships in Tennessee, Illinois, Missouri, California, Michigan, Ohio, and Oklahoma. Tennessee had five representatives; Michigan had four; Illinois three; California one; Ohio two; and Oklahoma one.

Throughout the day, perhaps 100 to 200 out-of-state travelers passed through Murray, according to a reporter's estimate.

4th Child Clinic Will Be Given by Health Officials

The Calloway County health unit, under the direction of County Health Doctor J. A. Outland, will hold the fourth of a series of health clinics at the Center Ridge School house Friday afternoon, July 9.

Other clinics have been held at Lynn Grove, Hazel, and Murray, with what officials declared to be good attendance.

Purpose of the clinics, nurses said, is to discover defects of children just getting ready to enter school, and thus to take advantage of remedial opportunities which might offer themselves.

Nurses especially urge all children under six years of age to attend the clinics. Nineteen children were present at the Lynn Grove conference, and twelve were present at Hazel.

Commissioner Humphreys Brief Visitor in City

Road Commissioner Robert Humphreys, Mayfield, tarried in Murray briefly Saturday at noon en route from his home in Mayfield to his office in Frankfort. Mr. Humphreys stayed only long enough to grab a bite of lunch.

He expressed his interest in obtaining promptly all the right-of-way deeds for the Coldwater road. Mr. Humphreys declared some time back that he was ready to let the contract for surfacing the Coldwater road all the way to Mayfield just as soon as the right-of-way in Calloway county was signed.

Mr. Humphreys has a sister in Murray, Mrs. Rue Beale, wife of the professor in the social science department at the college and resident dean in the men's dormitory.

America Again Pays Holiday Death Toll

America counted 384 dead tonight (Monday) from Fourth of July accidents, but only one was directly attributed to fireworks.

Traffic accidents mounted to a record high as 41 states reported 228 fatalities—20 more than were killed in highway accidents during the corresponding period last year.

The single fireworks death occurred in Woonsocket, R. I., where an 8-year-old girl died from burns suffered when her dress caught fire from a sparkler.

Eighty-five drowned and 70 met their deaths in other ways. While the single deaths from fireworks brought near-achievements of a 30-year campaign to end such fatalities, hundreds of persons were treated in the country's hospitals for burns and other injuries caused by explosives.

California led in motor vehicle deaths with 17 and New York was high in total fatalities with 28. Delaware, Nevada, Vermont, and the District of Columbia reported no accident deaths.

Wild bullets from guns of celebrants, grade crossing accidents, airplane crashes and industrial mishaps sent hundreds to hospitals for treatment. A total of 10 were killed in grade crossing accidents in Minnesota, Kentucky, and Rhode Island.

Four persons were killed and three others injured last night when their automobile was struck by a train at a grade crossing near Paysonville, Minn. Three other persons, a man, his wife and a child, were also killed last night when their car was struck by a train near Williamstown, Ky.

Fees Will Not Be Raised For Fall Term at Murray

Rates Are Uniform for Teachers Colleges

Prospective students of Murray State College were notified today that there will be no increase in incidental fees for the fall semester which opens officially September 20.

Dr. James H. Richmond, president of Murray State, explained that the incidental fee will be the same as in the past—$25.00 for the full semester of 18 weeks. This fee, set by the Council on Public Higher Education is uniform for the four teachers colleges of Kentucky.

Students may enroll for half-semester (9 weeks) for $12.50. Although registration opens officially on September 20, students may register for credit as late as October 4. The semester closes January 28.

"No tuition is charged residents of Kentucky", Dr. Richmond announced in a recent bulletin. Non-residents are charged $15.00 per semester.

Plans are being made for one of the most successful years in the history of Murray State College.

A GREAT INDUSTRY

Soon we will begin to see a surprising variety of different license plates on cars which pass through or travel to and from the highways of our region. The tourist season is almost here, and people are touring, traveling more than ever before.

These travelers go where they are made welcome, and where the country is most attractive. They leave their money with the business houses equipped to serve them effectively and in the communities where facilities for their comfort and convenience are located.

In other words here is a great industry which can be made to produce substantial benefits for the citizens of our community. It is up to us to take advantage of the opportunity it offers.

When a tourist calls upon you for a little information don't be stingy, don't begrudge him a few moments of your time. Who knows, he may come back this way again some day if he is well treated, and he will not quickly forget your thoughtfulness and courtesy.

There are also many things we can do to make the community and surrounding country attractive to the visitor. We can cover our unsightly dump heaps with decorative fencing. Our highway departments can landscape plots and squares of land along the road which cannot be used effectively for any utilitarian purpose. Citizens and farmers living along the highway can also take pains to see that weeds are cut from the ditches rubbish removed from the right of way, that unsightly signs do not obstruct the view of the landscape.

Whatever we do to make our region more attractive to tourists can be considered among good investments.

State Should Also Provide Right-o-way

At a meeting of the Western Kentucky State Press Association in Paducah a few weeks ago, Representative Henry Ward of McCracken county made the suggestion that since construction of modern highways had now become almost entirely a state-wide problem and function that provisions should be made by the general assembly for the Commonwealth to purchase right-of-ways out of its road fund as well as build and construct the roads.

Mr. Ward's point is well taken and this newspaper believes that it would be entirely appropriate as well as practical for the state to assume this responsibility. It would like to see the new representative of this county and the senator from this district, Senator Turner, who is a hold-over, prosecute the enactment of such a law in the 1938 session.

There are a good many reasons and all of them good we think why the state should handle the right-o-way problem as well as those of engineering and construction. It must be remembered, too, that arrangements under which highways are built have changed in a large degree since it was first established that the county should obtain the right-o-way before the state would build the highway.

When one goes to build a house or business building he first obtains a piece of ground on which to build it. The lot is part and parcel of the building erected on it and they are regarded virtually as one. Land with building is regarded as improved real estate; without as unimproved real estate. One buys a lot and builds a home, as a continuous operation. There is an even closer connection between the right-o-way and the road built on it. A house may be moved from a lot but a road cannot be removed from its right-o-way without destroying it. All state and federal highways reach far beyond local use and importance. Virtually each one is built to serve a state-wide need and not merely a local convenience. The responsibility for the state is paramount upon the large political unity.

However, the cost of right-o-way differs considerably in the various counties for many reasons—value of land, departure from old routes, attitude of the people, are just a few of them—and also the means of the counties to purchase right-o-ways varies widely. A decade or so ago it was argued that the state road fund ought to be divided 50-50 with the counties on the basis of area, population and payments into it. We opposed such a move because we felt that it would delay completion of an adequate state-wide road system many years. It was not long before most every one was convinced that such a division would be foolhardy and wasteful and it hasn't been advocated or even mentioned for a long time.

An excellent example of the far greater efficiency of a state road fund handling all the money may be found near home in Livingston county, one with a large area, typographically broken and very poor in population and wealth. Were a substantial portion of the state road fund diverted to the various counties on any basis it would have taken decades before Livingston county could have paid for its part of Federal Highway No. 60 and the River Route from Louisville to Paducah would still be just a dream instead of an actuality realized long ago and soon to be hard-surfaced every foot of the way.

Another reason why the state should now provide the right-o-

way is because the road fund is much larger than it used to be. While it is true that automobile licenses have been reduced and that maintenance costs grow with the increasing mileage, the larger number of cars and the accompanying increased use of gasoline have resulted in a steadily mounting annual fund available for roads.

When we start from Murray to Louisville we are interested only in the condition of the highway and not at all in the name of the county through which any particular part of it runs. However, a certain 10 miles of right-o-way between the rivers in Trigg county, where the land is poor and valueless for farming, may not have cost $100 while another ten miles through the best farming part of Warren may have cost $10,000; or it may be that 10 miles through a poor county cost more than another 10 miles in a rich county.

The modernist, who after all builds and maintains the highways of Kentucky with his taxes, is concerned at all so long as he gets a good road to wherever he is going.

Many of the most vexing problems of building highways could be wiped out with one stroke of the pen by passage of a law to permit the state to take care of the right-o-way as well as handling all the rest of the problem of presenting a finished highway to its citizens. We repeat, it is a state-wide problem and should be handled by the state as a whole.

It was not long before most every one was convinced that such a division would be foolhardy and wasteful and it hasn't been advocated or even mentioned for a long time.

Do You Take a Cold Easily? Then Try the Ice Cube Test

ROCHESTER, Minn., June 28.—Dr. Bayard T. Horton of the Mayo Clinic sounded a warning today to swimmers who are hyper-sensitive to cold.

It is such a condition he said in a clinical report that causes many drownings.

Place a cube of ice on the forearm for a minute. If, three or four minutes after the ice has been removed, a swelling appears on the arm, the patient is hypersensitive to cold, and should never plunge into cold water.

Want To Get Married? Well, Your Chances Wane After You're Past 21

If you are 21 years old, do or do not wear a tie or lipstick, and are still single you'd better watch where you leave your sandals; because that is the age when Cupid forgets when the seasons change and flings his love arrows in all directions like water drops from a revolving wheel. Cupid is no respecter of persons, and let the wind blow, where it listeth, his arrows always hit the heart.

According to the marriage record in the office of the Calloway County Court Clerk in Murray, there were 122 licenses issued from August 7, 1936 to June 15, 1937. Of the men obtaining license for marriage, 30 of them were 21 years old, and women of the minimum voting age who received the souvenir of Cupid numbered 40.

There were two 18 years old girls who received legal marriage sanctions and one boy of the same age. The boy married an 18 year old girl. There was only one 17 years old boy, but he married one of the seven girls who had known 17 circlings of the sun. Twelve girls said they were 18 years old, but only four members of the stronger clan would admit it. Of the four, two married ladies of their own age; one was satisfied with a 17 year Miss; and the other loved his at sweet 16.

A boy 19 years old has about as much chance of getting married as a snowball in Tartarus, and his Minerva-eyed honey-plum-though she massage her skin to the complexion of Hebe and gaze at the moon with the ardor of Psyche—finds little opportunity to convince the cherub-checked dieu d'amour. Only one boy 19 (so says the record) loved wisely and well; but damsels of the blushing order who trod the confetti-strewn trail to connubial bliss increased the total marriages of the year for 19-year-olds to four.

The total number of individuals who married at 20 was eight; five girls, and three boys. It was the next year that Cupid went off the gold standard onto the wedding standard.

There's still a pretty good chance for a person to get married after he or she is 21. During the last year, there were 48 women over that age married—22 of them over 30—and there were 81 men, 29 of whom were over 30 years old. There were 22 couples the husband and wife of which were the same age when the ceremony was performed. Ten women were older than the men they married, but the men were overwhelmingly in the lead with 90. Thirty women under 21 married, and nine men.

The first marriage license issued in the fiscal year's record was to Miss Mamie Lancaster, 27, Dover, Tenn., and Bryant Waggoner, 38, Granite City, Ill. One man and woman who were 63 and 61 years old respectively were married in Murray. In Dexter, a couple married, the girl being 17 and the man 40. A New Concord man, 50, married a girl who was 21.

For one couple, the register simply stated "legal age"; and for another couple, it failed to state the age of 22 girl. The man, however, was 24.

One hundred and seventy-five Caldwell county homemakers are growing at least one new vegetable this year.

Both the bride and bridesmaid were dressed in blue with white accessories.

The simple, but impressive ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. G. Curd.

The young couple left Murray Monday afternoon, July 5, for their home in Chicago, Ill.

Much merriment was had over the serpentine whisters given for souvenirs and lolly-pops.

The twenty-three guests joined hands and marched around a gaily decorated table, on the lawn; bearing a large white cake with seven burning candles singing "Happy Birthday To You," while the little host blew out the candles.

Refreshments consisting of lemonade, ice cream and cake were served.

Many useful gifts and toys were received by the honoree.

Bro. B. R. Winchester, a kinsman to the homecomers, delivered a splendid gospel message which was enjoyed. Many of the guests had not visited here in many years.

It seems that when we are young we go out to seek our fortunes, but when we grow older our minds go back home and we desire to mingle and mix with the loved ones with whom they grew up with and look again upon the churches our fathers built and to walk again to the beloved red school house in the woods where we attended school in our childhood and last of all to walk through the cemetery where our departed loved ones lay.

Across the River

Everytime I write, I'm reminded of the damage the flood did, because in January we took our Parker pen to Parkers Jewelry Store to have it sent away for a new point and it was lost in the flood so I scribble almost with my finger while I continue to wait, hoping for the pen's recovery.

The weather has been a little warmer than I would have ordered had I been consulted, and at present a rain wouldn't hurt this hill at all.

Brother Pogue still continues his meeting at Poplar Spring Church of Christ, but I suppose he will discontinue it Sunday. Louis Nolan furnished seventy-five pounds of fish and the preachers and several of the congregation, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Litton Acree, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and others enjoyed a fish fry at Bailey Springs Saturday.

The Baptist Church surprised Brother Outland with a household shower last third Sunday.

Bro. Noble Spiceland who has been attending school in Texas, preached at Nevil's Creek Sunday.

Mrs. Lorene Mason of Cairo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bailey for two weeks.

The Rushings Baptist Church congregation (apparently) assembled on a large truck and went to Murray to the singing Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Cathey and children and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dawson visited Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spiceland Sunday. Mrs. Gertrude Spiceland, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Spiceland visited relatives in Calloway the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lovins arrived home from Detroit Saturday safely. They said they attended church at the new Norris auditorium last Sunday night. The building is not complete yet, so a make-shift roof covered it and while Dr. Norris was preaching a storm broke with thunder and lightning and a terrific deluge of rain. They said as rain blew in, women raised umbrellas while screaming in terror and the preacher quoted "As the lightning cometh from the east and shineth unto the west, so shall the coming of the Son of man be." Fifty had already been baptized but others ran in terror to the altar. The noise was soon so great that the preacher had to quit preaching and while the terrified congregation became drenched the choir sang, "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings."

Bro. J. H. Thurman filled his regular appointment at Poplar Spring Sunday. That church shows with its new roof, new coat of paint, new rugs and improved benches that it has a live congregation.

Mrs. Emma Nance from Chicago is still visiting relatives around Concord though she expects to return home soon. She is thinking seriously of buying a home in Concord.

The Sulphur Spring revival is to begin second Sunday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Lovins and baby, Paducah, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lovins Sunday.

Mrs. Chatterbox was taxed two dollars Saturday by Dr. Carney for being told there was nothing the matter with her. Lots of folks would be glad to pay for a verdict like that.

I heard lots of compliments on that temperance play given at Concord one night last week. Many attended because it was free, but one certain father, mother and brother paid box seat rates. When a collection plate was passed this family sat away from each other and neither knew the other was going to contribute, so each paid a dollar. Well, such tender hearted people make an appreciated audience.

Miss Beatrice Locke of Louisville is visiting Mr. Joe Montgomery's family and relatives around Concord.

Tilman Taylor preached his first sermon in the new Church of Christ at Concord two weeks ago, and had one addition that day. We knew he wasn't just an ordinary fellow all the time.

Well, guess as everybody will be getting ready for the Fourth this better's long enough so until next time—adieu—Chatterbox.

In Memory Of

MRS. BECKHAM YOUNGBLOOD

Christ called her home to heaven: The angels came so near Kissed her cheeks and carried her soul To that Throne she never feared.

She was a dear sweet mother, And a friend to all she met: Tried to lead us on to glory— With the One we'd n'er regret.

I am sure she's in that garden With the sweetest flowers that grow, Where the greatest rays of Jesus Is taking care of her soul.

Her suffering on this earth is over. She has met that sweetest home, With her darling little baby That has passed to that beyond.

How we miss her sweet carressing— How we miss her loving care, But we must all remember We have all of this to bare.

Friends, now we must prepare Just to step into those gates, Of Jesus' beautiful garden— And meet her face to face.

C. A. Hale Promises People Rigid Economy

I WANT to present herewith a few of the things I endorse and which I promise to vote for and support should the people of this county elect me to represent them in the state legislature. I beg the voters to ponder these questions seriously because they are of vital interest to the well being of all the people:

I believe in providing the very best school advantages for the children of this state and in order to have such advantages they must be supported in a financial way. I shall vote for and advocate an annual per capita school fund of not less than $12.

I believe in granting a $3000 exemption on real estate and all such property above that amount should bear a reasonable tax. This should apply especially to all income property whether owned by a corporation, company or individual.

I PLEDGE myself to do all in my power to have the Calloway county road bonded indebtedness of $260,000.00 transferred to the state. I believe this to be right and just because this fund was spent by the state and the great bulk of the fund spent entirely upon state roads.

I will endeavor to secure for Calloway county and each county of the state a fair part of the gasoline tax to be used within the county on farm to market roads.

I will vote for freeing the toll bridges of the state, if and when that can be done without placing any additional burden of taxes upon the people.

I believe the state should be empowered to buy road right of ways where counties are not financially able to buy same. State roads should be built entirely of state funds.

I BELIEVE wholeheartedly in the Social Security law and will work for and advocate an extension of this law in order that all deserving persons can draw as much as $30 per month as is provided for in the Federal law. An additional tax on the liquor produced in this state will provide funds sufficient for this purpose, and as long as liquor is manufactured in the state I believe it should be made to pay a full measure of taxes.

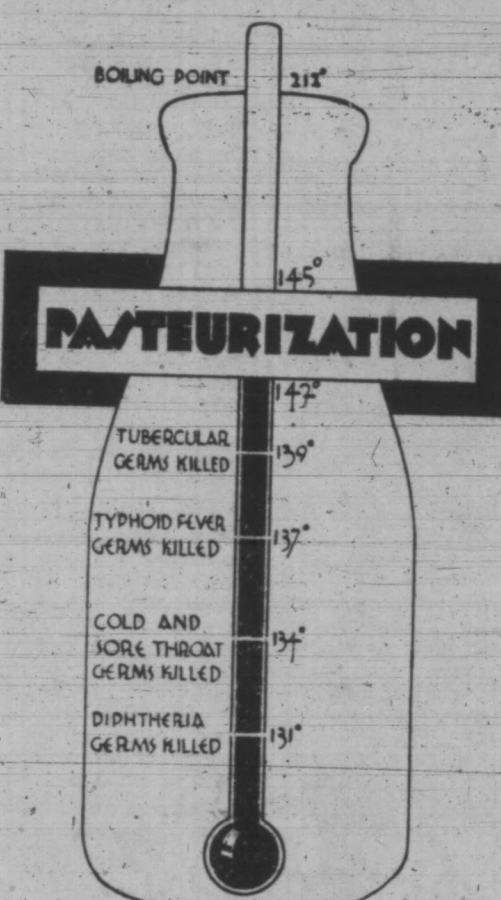

I believe in law enforcement. This is to especially apply to the enforcement of liquor laws in counties where the people have expressed themselves against the sale of intoxicants.

I AM IN COMPLETE ACCORD with Gov. Chandler in his effort to free the state of indebtedness and to keep it free of indebtedness in the future by constitutional amendment or acts of the legislature.

I believe in rigid economy of both state and county government and in this am again in accord with the Governor who is making great strides in perfecting the most economical state government in the history of this commonwealth. I pledge myself to work with him and all other forces in an earnest endeavor to bring the greatest benefits possible to the people of this state for the least outlay of taxes.

These are but a few of the things that will come before the legislature in the future. As other matters of importance develop it will be my purpose to keep in touch with the people of this county in order that I might be able to honestly represent them in all matters. I will appreciate your vote in the Aug. primary election.
